We, You Bunleng and Marcel Lemonde, the Co-Investigating Judges of the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia,

Noting the Law on the establishment of the Extraordinary Chambers dated 27 October 2004,

Noting Rule 23 of the Internal Rules of the Extraordinary Chambers,

Noting the judicial investigation initiated against KAING Guek Eav, alias Duch,

Noting the designation by Mrs. CHHIN Navy, Mr. BOU Meng and Mr. CHUM Mey, Civil Parties, dated 25 February 2008, of Ms. Silke Studzinsky, duly admitted to the list of lawyers willing to represent victims before the ECCC, as his/her lawyer willing to represent victims before the ECCC and having been sworn in before the Appeals Court in Phnom Penh on 07 March 2008, and the lawyer's acceptance, dated 25 February 2008,

Hereby accredit and recognise Mrs. Silke Studzinsky as the lawyer of the above-mentioned Civil Party for the purposes of the judicial investigation before the ECCC,

And note that the following rights and obligations apply as a result of designation as a Civil Party lawyer:

- Participation in the judicial investigation: You are authorised to represent your client in collaboration with the national lawyer during his or her participation in the proceedings, as provided in the ECCC Internal Rules ;
- Access to the case file: You have the right to examine and make copies of the original case file of the judicial investigation to which your client is a party, as well as the paper and electronic copies thereof, during working days and subject to the requirements of the proper functioning of the the ECCC. This access may be arranged with the assistance of the Victims Unit or the Case File Officer, but remains under the overall supervision of the competent Greffiers, as appropriate; Within reason, you may make, or request, copies of documents contained in the case file and take them to discuss with your client, but you must not hand over such copies to your client or to any other person;

- Professional and Judicial Confidentiality: Through your client's participation as a Civil Party, both you and your client will have access to confidential information contained in the case file. Only the ECCC Judges and Prosecutors can decide to make such information public. You are bound by the confidentiality of the judicial investigation and your own professional rules not to disclose any information that you have gained from consulting the case file.
- Filing of documents: Once your client has been recognized as a Civil Party, all official documents must be filed through the Case File Officer, as set out in the Practice Direction on Filing of Documents; You will receive electronic notification of documents placed on the case file, and you should provide an email address to the OCIJ greffiers for this purpose; Service of a hard copy will only be possible where you do not have access to email;

Rules and practice directions relating to Civil Party participation before the ECCC can be consulted and downloaded from the Victims Unit web page (<http://www.eccc.gov.kh/>). If you need any further advice concerning the representation of your client in ECCC proceedings, please contact the Victims Unit.
