Subject: Status of Your Civil Party Application

Your Civil Party Application form was received by the OCIJ Greffiers on the date indicated above and placed on the abovementioned case file on 26 May 2008 with reference number D25/6. Accordingly, subject to any later decision of the Co-Investigating Judges (see paragraph 2), you are now considered to be a Civil Party in the judicial investigation relating to that case.

It should be recalled that the Co-Investigating Judges may, at any time during the judicial investigation, make a formal decision with respect to the admissibility of your application, and reject it if they consider that you are not a victim or that the criteria set out in the Internal Rules and in the Practice Direction on victim participation are not fulfilled. Such decision is open to appeal before the ECCC Pre-Trial Chamber.

You should also be aware that, through your participation as a Civil Party, you and your lawyer may have access to confidential information contained in the case file. Only the ECCC Judges can decide to make such information public. You are bound by the confidentiality of the judicial investigation not to disclose any information, except personal information that you have provided to the judges in your application.

If you need further advice concerning your participation in the proceedings, please contact the Victims Unit. Rules and practice directions relating to Civil Party participation before the ECCC can be consulted and downloaded from the Victims Unit web page (<http://www.eccc.gov.kh/>).

Yours faithfully,

Phnom Penh, 29 May 2008
