Internal Regulations
Governing the Courtroom on Hearing Days

In order to ensure the public order, security and effective functioning during hearings, President of the Trial Chamber has established the internal regulations governing the courtroom on hearing days as follows:

1. All persons who wish to attend a hearing shall be present in the courtroom of the Extraordinary Chambers in the Courts of Cambodia at least before 8.30 a.m. for morning session and before 1:30 p.m. for afternoon session.
2. Participants shall maintain dignity and proper behaviour in the courtroom at all times. Participants shall wear appropriate clothing. Their clothing may not display slogans, indicate their support to a party of the proceedings, or be otherwise offensive in any way. Banners and posters will not be permitted in the courtroom.
3. All cameras, camcorders, tape recorders, and loudspeakers are prohibited in the courtroom; except otherwise approved by the Trial Chamber.
4. All persons are prohibited from smoking, bring food and drink inside the courtroom.
5. All weapons, explosives, ammunitions and inflammable substances are prohibited inside the courtroom, except those are brought by competency security-guards.
6. The use of cell phones is strictly prohibited. This prohibition also includes phone camera and audio recording except otherwise approved by the Trial Chamber.
7. All persons are prohibited from changing seats or walking freely inside the courtroom.
8. All persons are prohibited from clapping, cheering, shouting or making loud noise that may disrupt a hearing.
9. Walking around disorderly during a hearing is prohibited. Permission must be granted by the security guard before entering or exiting the courtroom
10. Children under 16 year of age are prohibited from entering the courtroom. Those, from 16 to 18, could enter the courtroom if they are accompanied by father or mother, or legal guardian; except those who attend the hearing as civil parties or witnesses.
11. The president of the Trial Chamber shall take preventive measures or direct action against any person who breach these internal regulations pursuant to the Internal Rules of the Extraordinary Chamber in the Courts of Cambodia and the applicable laws of the Kingdom of Cambodia. [Signature]
